

Special Olympics
New Mexico

June 25, 2015

Media Alert

Contact: Oscar Solis, Operations Director      Sabrina Torreblanca, Manager
Law Enforcement Torch Run      Tim's Big Heart Foundation
(505) 269-1445 cell      (619) 888.0913 cell
oscarsolis@sonm.org      sabrina@timsbigheartfoundation.org

WHAT:      Musician Aloe Blacc to visit Albuquerque's Tim's Place for its famous food and hugs before carrying the World Games Flame of Hope torch in Santa Fe

WHO:      Popular singer/songwriter Aloe Blacc and famous restaurateur Tim Harris along with numerous Tim's Place patrons

WHEN & WHERE:      Tuesday, June 30th at 1:00pm at Tim's Place (8050 Academy Rd NE #101, Albuquerque, NM 87111)

DETAILS:      As part of his support of the Unified Relay Across America that coincides with the 2015 Special Olympics World Summer Games in Los Angeles next month, singer/songwriter Aloe Blacc will pay a visit to Tim's Place to meet and eat with owner and Special Olympics athlete Tim Harris before traveling to Santa Fe to carry in the World Games Flame of Hope torch.

Later that evening from 6pm – 8pm, the Unified Relay Across America will host a free musical celebration at the Santa Fe Plaza celebrating the arrival of the 2015 World Games Flame of Hope torch. The evening includes live music, comments from key Special Olympics supporters, and a ceremonial passing of the Torch. The musical guest is Baracutanga—a local New Mexican band that offers a “flavor of South America with rhythms of Peru , Brazil, Colombia and more, this experienced group of musicians will keep you dancing all night.”

###