Over 100 Special Olympics athletes to compete on one of the nation's finest indoor tracks

- What: Special Olympics New Mexico's Seventh Annual Mayor's Indoor Track Meet
- Who: Over 100 Special Olympics New Mexico athletes from four communities in the state will compete in Track & Field events, with UNM Football Players serving as volunteers
- When: 10 am – 1:30 pm, February 20, 2016
- Where: Convention Center's Indoor Track Facility
- Why: Due to a great amount of generosity from Mayor Richard Berry and the City of Albuquerque Parks & Recreation Department, Special Olympics New Mexico (SONM) has the opportunity to invite its athletes to compete on one the nation's finest indoor track facilities. As one of the few states in the country able to offer its athletes an indoor track experience, SONM is proud to welcome athletes from all over the state to use this meet as an opportunity to kick off their track & field training season.
