TEAMS AND PLAYERS

1. Games and rounds are played between two (2) participating teams: A coin toss will determine who chooses the court side for the first round
2. At the start of each round, teams must play a minimum of six (5) and no more than twenty (10) players on the court
3. This is a Team Match style competition: if one team has only 5 players, then the opposing team can only choose 5 players for that match. If a team has 8 players, then the opposing team can only play 8 players and so forth, with a max of 10 players per match play. If both teams have 10 or more players, only 10 can be play per match. Once your team has designated the players for that game, those are the players throughout that particular game, unless injured. When you move on to the next game, you can choose different players, if you want.
4. Players arriving late during an active round may not play in that round
5. A claim of ineligible players must be made to the Head Referee who will make the final determination

CAPTAINS

1. For a given game, each team shall have one Captain who is responsible for the team
2. Only Team Captains may discuss calls and dispute rules with the Head Referee, but must accept the Head Referee's final ruling

SHAGGERS

1. Members of each team that are out or not playing in the round may return (shag) balls to the court that go out of bounds, switching as needed with other team members.
2. Shaggers may not:

Balls returned to the court from the side lines are not live until crossing the center line or put out of bounds and back in by crossing the back line.

REGULATION GAMES

4. A regulation game ends when all players on one team are out

STARTING PLAY

1. Before the round starts, only referees and designated shaggers may occupy the sideline area. After the round starts, anyone playing in that round may also occupy the sideline area. An infraction shall result in a warning to the player

3. All seven (7) balls are placed on the center line equally spaced
4. The Head Referee audibly signals the start of the round at which time, players may advance toward the balls
5. Players may only retrieve the 3 balls to their right, and may not touch or retrieve the three balls to their left. Players touching or retrieving balls on their left side are penalized with a false start.
6. A false start halts play, and restarts the round, with a ball being moved to the left of the center ball for the penalized team.
7. The center ball is not active (eligible for play) during the rush

9. Once all active balls are behind the clear lines, the center ball is eligible for play
